I had always understood 'there's no such thing as a free lunch' as a expression to demonstrate the economics concept of opportunity cost - whereby even if the lunch is fully paid for, one loses the etymology

What is the difference between "free rider" and "free loader"?

Free ride dates back to 1880, while free loader is a more recent construction "freeloader (n.) also free-loader, by 1939, from free (adj.) + agent noun from load (v.) As a verb, freeload is

"Free of" vs. "Free from"

If so, my analysis amounts to a rule in search of actual usage—a prescription rather than a description. In any event, the impressive rise of "free of" against "free from" over the past 100 years

Why does "free" have 2 meanings? (Gratis and Libre)

In the context such as "free press", it means libre from censorship, "gluten-free" means libre from gluten and so on. Then there is "free stuff", why is the same word used?

What is the opposite of "free" as in "free of charge"?

What is the opposite of free as in "free of charge" (when we speak about prices)? We can add not for negation, but I am looking for a single word.

For free vs. free of charges

I don't think there's any difference in meaning, although "free of charges" is much less common than "free of charge". Regarding your second question about context: given that English
